Tiny Paws Healing Hearts commits to communicate honestly, continue learning, make thoughtful decisions, and place the well-being of its dogs and puppies at the center of the program.

11. Breeder Promise

Tiny Paws Healing Hearts believes responsible breeding means knowing when to breed - and when not to. Every planned litter begins with prayerful consideration for the health and maturity of the parents, the purpose of the pairing, and the ability to provide exceptional care to the mother and every puppy she produces.

Breeder will never knowingly place the production of puppies ahead of the well-being of its dogs. We will keep learning. We will keep improving. We will love them first.

Responsible breeding. Purposeful placement. Healing hearts.
